

THE ASME FOUNDATION

THE OLD GUARD 70TH ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION

Whereas, The Old Guard has dedicated energy, enthusiasm and financial support to help early career engineers bridge the gap between college and professional life in mechanical engineering for the past seventy years, and;

Whereas, The Old Guard has brought recognition to mechanical engineers, especially through its sponsorship and funding of The Old Guard Oral Competition at each International Mechanical Engineering Congress and Exposition of ASME over the past fifty years, and;

Whereas, The Old Guard has promoted the qualities that inspire leadership, student membership, early career enhancements and faculty advisor interactions through the awards, contests, publications, and hosting of functions at the Congress;

Therefore, be it resolved on the 4th day of November 2006, that the Board of Directors of The ASME Foundation does hereby express sincere appreciation to The Old Guard for its outstanding stewardship and continued support of the early career engineer in bridging the gap between college and professional life and in so doing, bringing them closer to the activities of ASME for the benefit of all.

K. Keith Roe
Chair, The ASME Foundation