

Strategic Partnering Team

Mission: To leverage partnerships with ASME units, external organizations, and industry, who demonstrate active and long term commitment to expanding and sustaining global impact upon early career engineers.

Vision: To make ASME a valuable resource to early career engineers worldwide by being the premier bridge among ASME units, external organizations and industry that drive early career development.

If you are interested in getting involved with this team, please contact the Chair below.

Chair

Eduardo Barrientos

Graduate Student, Pennsylvania State University

Peerlink Display Name: barrientos

Ruth Tan

Assistant Category Operations Manager, Unilever

Canada

Peerlink Display Name: Ruthtan

Brian Gin

Mechanical Engineer, NAT-Seattle

Peerlink Display Name: Brian Gin

Meredith Caldwell

Engineer III, Southern Nuclear Operating Company

Peerlink Display Name: CaldwellM

Aaron Ryan

Engineer, Pella Corporation

Peerlink Display Name: ajr

Loretta C. H. McHugh

Quality Engineer, Henke Sass Wolf of America

Peerlink Display Name: Lori

Elizabeth Schwartz

Ford Audio-Video

Peerlink Display Name: SchwartzE3

Fawad Kiramat

Asst. Maintenance Engineer, MOL Pakistan Oil & Gas Co. B.V.

Peerlink Display Name: fawad

Anita Rebarchak

Manufacturing Process Engineer, Pratt & Whitney

Peerlink Display Name: RebarchakA

Robert Camp

Graduate Student, PhD trainee with the IGERT Nanomedicine Center at Northeastern University, Extracellular Matrix Engineering Research Lab (EMERL)

Peerlink Display Name: RCamp

Jen Jewers

Mechanical Designer, Henderson Engineers, Inc.

Peerlink Display Name: JewersJ

Steve Leggiero

Project Engineer

Peerlink Display Name: Leggiero

ASME Contact:

Cheryl Hasan

Center for Career and Professional Advancement